HARVEY HELM

of Lincoln county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Sept. 1.

JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES, of Mercer county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

M. F. NORTH

Is a candidate for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

PROF. QUEBLIN, of the Chicago University, is another of the seekers after notoriety, of which that institution seems especially prolific. He advocates "probationary marriage," and claims that they are the only solution of the marriage and divorce problem. He suggests six months as the probationary term, but makes no suggestion as to what is to become of the woman, if the couple decides that they are not cut out for each other. The proposition is on par with that of killing men at 60 and of putting out of the way of incurables and those affected with horrible disease; all three of which we believe originated in this wonderful university.

THE "Crested Jayhawk" always did call a spade a spade and we are glad to hear that he continues to do so in his present race for Congress. A dispatch says that at Humphrey, Casey county, at the conclusion of his speech, Mr. White was called upon to admit or deny certain statements in the deposition of W. S. Taylor in the Congressional race of White against Boreing. Mr. White lost his temper and in an infuriated denunciation of Taylor said that he (Taylor) had conceived assassination and was "worthy of a front seat in hell."

TEDDY has played another trump card by yielding to the demands of the labor unions for an enforcement of the eight-hour a day law, which, although it has been on the statute books for 14 years has not been enforced. Candidates for Congress this fall will now be able to prate over the claim that the Republican party is the only true friend of the laboring man.

It is a source of general regret that Hon. W. J. Price, of Boyle, was compelled to retire from the race for Congress on account of ill health. He was taken ill during his speech at Lawrenceburg a week ago and is still in a dangerous condition. Mr. Price had many friends and supporters all over the district and would have made a magnificent race.

VIRGINIA will issue a home-coming proclamation next year to her children to visit the Jamestown Exposition, but those of us who have made Kentucky our home will be so ashamed of the way the Kentucky Legislature treated the mother State that we will have to go back incog.

MONEY is certainly plentiful in this country when 2 per cent. Panama Canal bonds, issued by the U. S. government, find rapid sale at nearly 4 per cent. premium. That is to say $80,000,000 of these bonds are taken, the buyers giving two years' interest for the privilege.

THE State Fair held at Owensboro in 1903 was a little long about paying its debts, but it finally did so. A check received Saturday squared a small advertising bill that had been on our books for three years. It was a case of better late than never.

A GEORGIA solon is serving his 21st year in the Legislature. There are several men in Lincoln county who would like to spend the balance of their lives in Kentucky's Legislative halls and they are trying their best to do so.

POLITICAL.

The Richmond and Somerset post-offices have been allowed $100 each for additional clerk hire.

Judge James D. Black, of Barbourville, is expected to announce for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General in a few days.

A circus prevented Congressman Edwards from speaking at Columbia. That night he had an appointment to speak and less than a dozen gathered to hear him.

William Jennings Bryan will be given a public reception and welcome home by the Democrats of Louisville and the entire South soon after the Eastern Democrats get through welcoming him.

Milo B. Shanks and Henry Taylor, leading lights of the Kentucky Republican Club in Washington, and employees of the Government Printing Office, have been reduced in salary. Shanks from $2,000 to $1,200, and Taylor from $1,400 to $1,200.

Speaking of political fiascos, the McCreary-Blackburn-Hays "conference" takes the cake. Oily James has certainly lost his cunning. As endorser of Boni Hays' fight upon Kentucky Democracy he has surely gotten off the fence on the side of his enemies.—Somerset Journal.

William J. Bryan has accepted an invitation to speak in Cincinnati about September 10.

Warren Moody, town attorney of Shoshone, Wyo., was shot from ambush and killed. He was a son of U. S. Senator Moody.

The work of opening and classifying bids for the $30,000,000 Panama canal bond issue has begun at the treasury department in Washington.

A dispatch says that Washington Republicans are in high glee over the Democratic split in Kentucky. They should, however, restrain themselves from being premature. Democratic fights are like cat fights. The one produces more Democrats, the other more cats.—Frankfort Journal.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Matterson Wilkinson, an aged citizen of Liberty, is dead.

Raymond Mills, aged 24, is dead at Ellisburg, Casey county.

After being shot twice in the abdomen, Mack Woods, colored, at Somerset, took the pistol away from Marshall Wilder, who had shot him, and killed Wilder.

Mrs. Salida Sallee was found dead by the roadside near Harrodsburg with her four little children huddled around her body. She had had domestic troubles and is believed to have suicided.

George and Edgar Chadwell and Zeke Payne have brought suit against the L. & N. railroad for $10,000 each for injuries suffered by being struck by a train at the Richmond crossing in Lancaster.

Horace Disponnett, a well-known younger farmer of the lower part of Anderson county, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning. Pete Disponnett, who was with him at the time, was knocked unconscious, and is in a critical condition.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Frederick T. Detweiler, of Louisville, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Barbourville.

The new Baptist church at Bluster will be dedicated on the first Sunday in August. All day service; dinner on the ground. Eld. J. Q. Montgomery is circulating a subscription to raise $300 to repair the Christian church. It was badly wrecked in the storm of June 23.—Liberty News.

Judge Childress, of the Second Circuit Court, Nashville, granted an injunction restraining all of those who claim to be still Cumberland Presbyterians from interfering in any way with the services, or judicatories of the part of the Presbyterian Church, formerly known as Cumberland Presbyterians.

The meeting at the First Baptist Church closed Sunday, with 15 additions to the church, 9 by baptism and 6 by letter. The sledge-hammer blows of Rev. Porter against the wickedness of the times and the inertia of Christians were calculated to be helpful to the cause of good citizenship.—Somerset Journal.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lync Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c.

HON. HARVEY HELM announced his candidacy for Congress at Lancaster yesterday in a short speech that was well received. Mr. Helm has a large number of friends and admirers in Garrard, who have pledged their support to him. Mr. James I. Hamilton, who is undecided yet as to whether or not he will make the race, also had a few words to say.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

The 37th annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association began at 11 o'clock yesterday with a luncheon at the Old Inn, to be given by the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times. The editors left at 12:01 for Grayson Springs, where a reception was held last night.

of troubles to contend with, spring from a torpid liver and blocked bowels, unless you awaken them to their proper action with Dr. King's New Life Pills; the pleasantest and most effective cure for Constipation. They prevent Appendicitis and tone up the system. 25c at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lync Bros., Crab Orchard.

Black rust appearing in spring wheat has caused some uneasiness, but experts say that the crop will not be injured. Much straw may result from the winter crop.

MATRIMONIAL.

M. J. Fisher, aged 80, and Mrs. Susan Shortridge, 67, were married at Ashland.

Carl Hanser, formerly of Laurel county, but now a Shelby county farmer, was married in Louisville last week to Mrs. R. Gugel, a handsome widow.

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravage of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. The genuine is in a yellow package. Penny's Drug Store.
